Ten disorders of the liver

By Intemperance in eating, especially high seasoned - and fat animal food. Gluttons often die of Liver complaints. The large liver of the Turkey is said to be owing to its excess in eating food [illegible]ment. -

† Sometimes ~~Drunkards~~ the secretion of Bile is wholly interrupted in Drunkards. - When this is the case - they become pale, which is generally a forerunner of death. It is [illegible] the ~~2nd~~ highest grade of drunkenness, as white Does the greatest highest grade of heat. - The first use of ardent Spirits is happily characterized by the fable of Prometheus; who is said to have stolen fire from heaven. This effects are as happily characterized in the punishment for this theft. - It was ~~on the pelicans~~ a vulture preying on his liver - or an hepatitis.

~~In the Chronic there is pain or Oppression~~ true ~~in the side pain in the shoulder sometimes~~ ~~a numbness in Bot~~ leg or both one arm or ~~in both - Costiveness Languor Debilitated,~~ Colic ~~least sometimes natural~~ Sometimes a hardness in the lower edge of the liver gives the first notice of the existence of this disease. ~~Enlarged~~ should be dis-~~Spleen~~ ~~pains~~ pains of abdom: inguales.
Peles: case. o The Aorte Infr of y Liver passes into the Chronic & vice versa. Dr Saunders supposes it to have its seat in the Vena portarum.

The Remedies for the Hepatic state of fever whether Acute or Chronic are 1 V.S. copious in the acute, & frequent when necessary in the Chronic. Dr Clark of St Domingo drew from 16 ij to 16 iv in this disease in 48 hours in a hot West India Island.

~~This~~ The two forms of Elysabitis that have been described here become much more frequent than in former years in every part of the United States. ~~It has been~~ The cause of this must be obvious to you all. It is to be ascribed to the late increase of bilious fevers in our Country. It is I have said, about or quotidian bilious fever. It is to the bilious fever, what a pneumony is to a diffuse Pleurisy or inflam^d fever. ——

The next disease of the kind I mentioned is a preternatural secretion & excretion of Bile. =
